Celanese Corporation Announces New $1 Billion Share Repurchase Authorization

- Deployed $400 Million on Share Repurchases During Third Quarter -

DALLAS, September 9, 2015 --- Celanese Corporation (NYSE: CE), a global technology and specialty materials company, today announced that its board of directors has approved a new $1 billion share repurchase authorization which the company intends to execute over the next two years. The new share repurchase authorization represents approximately 11 percent of the company's shares outstanding.

During the third quarter, the company has deployed $400 million to repurchase 6.3 million shares under its pre-existing $451 million share repurchase authorization.

"Since 2012, Celanese has returned over $850 million to shareholders through the repurchase of almost 15 million shares. This new authorization reflects our ability to generate strong and growing cash flows, facilitating a balanced capital allocation strategy to fund growth initiatives while returning capital to our shareholders through a combination of share repurchases and dividends," said Mark Rohr, chairman and chief executive officer.
